Motions and Resolutions

The Speaker, on behalf of the entire membership of the House of Representatives, offered the following resolution:
House Resolution No. 121.

A resolution of tribute offered as a memorial for Richard D. Allen, former member of the House of Representatives.

Whereas, The members of this legislative body and many at the Capitol were saddened to learn of the passing of Richard D. Allen, a member of the Michigan House of Representatives for 12 years. With his record of commitment on behalf his community, this state, and our nation, this gentleman set an example of the highest standards of citizenship and service; and

Whereas, A native of Caro in the Thumb, Dick Allen compiled a long and varied record of dedication on behalf of others. He served our nation with distinction in both the Marines and the Air Force and studied at the University of Illinois and the University of Maryland before returning to his home community. He became a trusted voice for his neighbors through his 19 years as a newspaper reporter and editor. His personal involvement in community life was further illustrated in his leadership as a charter member of the Help Line crisis intervention program and his efforts on the Tuscola County Community Mental Health Services Board. He also contributed to the work of a host of other civic groups; and

Whereas, In 1983, Mr. Allen brought his talents and energies to Lansing for the first of his 6 consecutive terms in the House. His attention to detail, particularly though his work on the Appropriations Committee, was appreciated by both members and staff. This steady thoroughness was helpful throughout his entire tenure as a lawmaker, which included service during the historic shared power arrangement during the Eighty-third Legislature. His subsequent involvement in public affairs in Lansing reflected the respect he garnered from both sides of the political aisle; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we offer this expression of our highest tribute to honor the memory of Richard D. Allen, a member of this legislative body from 1983 to 1994; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Allen family as evidence of our lasting esteem for his memory.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Polidori, Lisa Brown, Geiss, Haveman, Knollenberg, Lahti, LeBlanc, Leland, Lipton, Liss, Pearce, Rocca, Stanley, Valentine, Barnett, Byrnes, Dean, Robert Jones, Terry Brown, Constan, Crawford, Haugh, Rick Jones, Kandrevas, Lemmons, Miller, Neumann, Spade, Clemente, Cushingberry and Walsh offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 112.

A resolution to urge the U.S. Department of State to work with Italian authorities to do all they can to maintain the Italian Consulate in Detroit.

Whereas, The history of the people of Michigan and the people of Italy has been marked by generations of personal, educational, cultural, and commercial relationships. The depth of these relationships is well expressed by the fact that the people of Italy have had a formal presence of their government in Detroit since 1899, when a consular agent was appointed; and

Whereas, Today, the Detroit Consulate of Italy has jurisdiction not only throughout Michigan, but also across Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky, and Tennessee. This facility, located in the Buhl Building in downtown Detroit, offers vital services to those seeking visas, businesses from America working with their counterparts in Italy, and Italian businesses operating in this country. Students, families, and entrepreneurs benefit from the assistance and cultural information booklets offered at the Italian Consulate; and

Whereas, The recent announcement by the Italian government of plans to close the Italian Consulate in Detroit has been met with surprise and concern throughout Michigan. With the historic realignment of the auto industry that includes the purchase by Italian car maker Fiat of major assets of Chrysler, it would seem as if the need for the services offered by the consulate would be increasing. Clearly, this transaction alone would seem more likely to create more demand for the official presence of the Italian government rather than less; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the U.S. Department of State to work with Italian authorities to do all they can to maintain the Italian Consulate in Detroit; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Office of the United States Secretary of State and to the Italian Consulate in Detroit.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Government Operations.

Rep. Amash offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 113.

A resolution to affirm the individual rights secured under the Ninth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to urge the federal government to respect this fundamental protection.

Whereas, The Ninth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States reads as follows: “The enumeration in the Constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people”; and

Whereas, The Ninth Amendment assures that the specific rights articulated elsewhere in the Bill of Rights are not limited to those mentioned. The overall impact of this language over the course of our nation’s history is to provide a check on the powers of the federal government to curb the individual rights of any citizen; and

Whereas, Those concerned over the trend towards increased federal government activism strongly feel that the protections assured in the Ninth Amendment, as well as the Tenth Amendment, which assures the rights of the states, are critical to the future of our system of self-government. Reminders of the steps our founders took to preserve the rights of individual citizens are altogether necessary and appropriate; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we affirm the individual rights secured under the Ninth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to urge the federal government to respect this fundamental protection; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Office of the President of the United States, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Reps. McMillin, Agema and Calley offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 114.

A resolution to memorialize the United States Congress to oppose any plans to implement a carbon dioxide cap and trade (tax) program.

Whereas, While striving to mitigate perceived global warming, many groups are calling for the implementation of what is called a carbon dioxide cap and trade program. Under a cap-and-trade program—which should really be called a “cap and tax” program—the U.S. government would set a gradually declining overall cap on the amount of carbon dioxide that can be emitted by American companies; and

Whereas, Cap and trade programs are complex schemes that obscure the true cost of limiting carbon dioxide emissions. Suppressing emissions of carbon dioxide would dramatically impact energy-producing industries and would stifle an American economy which is based on energy. Electricity, home heating fuels, and automotive fuel would become significantly more expensive. Energy intensive businesses, such as those dependent on advanced technologies, would face soaring costs which they would undoubtedly pass on to consumers. The Congressional Budget Office has estimated that a 15 percent cut of emissions would raise average household energy costs by almost $1,300 a year. This would constitute a huge “tax” on average Americans. Proponents of carbon cap and trade programs typically fail to mention the true costs to American consumers of implementing such programs; and

Whereas, Congressman John Dingell rightly proclaimed earlier this year when referring to this proposal, "It's a great big tax,;" and

Whereas, A recent study showed that for every so-called green job created there is a loss of over two non-green jobs; and

Whereas, According to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, 2008 was the coldest year since 2000 and global temperatures for the year were below the average of the past 30 years; and

Whereas, The result of this scheme would most definitely be a financial burden on middle and lower income families; and

Whereas, The current administration in Washington has gained and is attempting to gain more control over the private sector through ownership of automotive companies, financial institutions and healthcare. A carbon dioxide cap and trade program would give additional control to government over our lives and private business; and

Whereas, It is doubtful that a carbon dioxide cap and trade program would provide any real benefits. What is certain though, is that a carbon dioxide cap and tax program will saddle Americans with higher energy costs; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we memorialize the United States Congress to oppose any plans to implement a national carbon cap and trade program; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Energy and Technology.

Reps. McMillin, Sheltroun, Agema, Calley, Dean, Caul, Genetski, Haveman, Pearce, Crawford, Haugh, Rick Jones and Meekhof offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 115.

A resolution to urge Eastern Michigan University to respect the religious rights of its students and staff and halt all discriminatory practices and to urge the Michigan Attorney General to investigate the Julea Ward case to determine if her civil rights have been violated.

Whereas, Julea Ward, a student in the Eastern Michigan University Graduate School of Counseling, was dismissed from this program in March 2009, over her response to a client prior to a counseling session. Ms. Ward apparently did not agree prior to the session to affirm the client's homosexual behavior as morally acceptable. On the advice of her supervising professor, she referred the client to another counselor. Her case went before a review hearing, which resulted in her dismissal from the counseling program; and

Whereas, At the heart of this situation, which has drawn widespread attention and is currently the subject of a lawsuit filed with the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, is whether Ms. Ward's dismissal was based on her religious beliefs. The university's policies on counseling practices regarding homosexual relationships run counter to the tenets of her faith; and

Whereas, The university's decision to discipline a student with dismissal near the conclusion of her program is most disturbing to many people. The actions Julea Ward did take, to refer the client to another counselor, do not at all seem disrespectful of the client or the client's rights. This is in apparent sharp contrast to the manner in which Ms. Ward was treated when she exercised her own rights to follow her religious beliefs; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge Eastern Michigan University to respect the religious rights of its students and staff and halt all discriminatory practices and to urge the Michigan Attorney General to investigate the Julea Ward case to determine if her civil rights have been violated; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President and Regents of Eastern Michigan University and the Office of the Michigan Attorney General.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Reps. DeShazor, Agema, Haveman, Knollenberg, Pearce, Booher, Robert Jones, Bolger, Rick Jones, Tyler and Walsh offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 116.

A resolution requesting the principals of the Revenue Estimating Conference to hold monthly revenue estimating conferences until the 2009-2010 Fiscal Year and the 2010-2011 Fiscal Year budgets have been enacted.

Whereas, For almost three decades, Michigan has used a consensus estimating process to generate official estimates of the budget. The revenue estimating process was established by 1991 PA 72. The principals of the conference are the State Budget Director or the State Treasurer, the Director of the House Fiscal Agency, and the Director of the Senate Fiscal Agency; and

Whereas, The conference establishes an official economic forecast of the major variables of the national and state economies. The conference may request and receive from all public officers, departments, agencies, and authorities of the state the assistance and data needed to enable it to fulfill its duties. The conference develops forecasts in various areas: total GF/GP revenue, total School Aid revenue, School Foundation Index, compliance with the state revenue limit, and the Budget Stabilization Fund pay-ins and pay-outs; and

Whereas, The state of Michigan faces a difficult and unpredictable economic future. The revenue collected from Michigan's General Fund and School Aid Fund earmarked taxes totaled $1.3 billion in May, which was down 13.4 percent from last year's level. This marked the fourth consecutive month that tax collections have declined in excess of 10.0 percent. While collections for almost all of the major taxes experienced declines in May from their year-ago levels, the most significant declines were experienced by the sales, use, and income taxes. On a fiscal year-to-date basis, tax collections are down 12.9 percent or $1.5 billion from last year's levels; and

Whereas, The Revenue Estimating Conference is required to meet each year in the second week of January and the last week of May. However, there is a provision in the statute that provides that upon the written request of a member of the Revenue Estimating Conference, a conference meeting shall be convened by the chairperson. In light of the falling revenues which Michigan is experiencing, it is critical that the Revenue Estimating Conference meet on a monthly basis to generate official estimates until the 2009-2010 Fiscal Year and the 2010-2011 Fiscal Year budgets have been enacted; now, therefore, be

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we request the principals of the Revenue Estimating Conference to hold monthly revenue estimating conferences until the 2009-2010 Fiscal Year and the 2010-2011 Fiscal Year budgets have been enacted; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the State Budget Director, State Treasurer, Senate Fiscal Agency Director, and the House Fiscal Agency Director.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

Rep. Warren offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 117.

A resolution designating July 2009 as Michigan Craft Beer Month and commending the Michigan craft brewers.

Whereas, Michigan craft brewers are a vibrant affirmation and expression of Michigan entrepreneurial traditions, operating as community-based small businesses and providing employment for more than 1,000 workers; and

Whereas, Michigan has craft brewers in every region of the state and more than 70 craft brewers statewide; and

Whereas, The Michigan Brewers Guild is celebrating its 12-year anniversary of its Michigan Summer Beer Festival this July; and

Whereas, Michigan craft brewers support Michigan agriculture by purchasing beet sugar, cherries, and apples grown in Michigan; and

Whereas, Michigan craft brewers promote Michigan's spirit of independence through a renaissance in hand-crafted beers like those first brought to Michigan by European settlers and produced here by our forefathers, including Bernhard Stroh, for the enjoyment of the citizenry; and

Whereas, Michigan craft brewers strive to educate legal drinking-age residents about the differences in beer flavor, aroma, color, alcohol content, body, and other complex variables, as well as historic brewing traditions, beer history, and gastronomic qualities of beer; and

Whereas, Michigan craft brewers champion the message of responsible enjoyment to their customers and work within their communities to prevent alcohol abuse and under-age drinking; and

Whereas, Michigan craft brewers produce more than 100 distinct styles of flavorful beers, the quality and diversity of which have made Michigan the envy of many beer-drinking states, thereby contributing to balanced trade by reducing Michigan dependence on imported and other regional beers, supporting Michigan exports, and promoting Michigan tourism; and

Whereas, Michigan craft brewers are vested in the future, health, and welfare of their communities as employers providing a diverse array of quality local jobs, as contributors to the local tax base, and as committed sponsors of a broad range of vital community institutions and philanthropic causes, including not-for-profit housing development associations, chambers of commerce, humane societies, athletic teams, and medical research; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body designate July 2009 as Michigan Craft Beer Month as a celebration of the contributions that Michigan craft brewers have made to the state's communities, economy, and history; and be it further

Resolved, That we commend Michigan craft brewers for providing jobs, improving the balance of trade, supporting Michigan agriculture, and educating residents about the history and culture of beer while promoting the responsible consumption of beer as a beverage of moderation.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Warren, Liss, Smith, Valentine, Byrnes, Haase, Lipton, Miller, Roberts, Donigan, Slavens, Hammel, Barnett, Kennedy, Lisa Brown, Bauer, Robert Jones, Geiss, Gonzales, Haugh, Neumann, Coulouris, Meadows, Lahti, Leland, Wayne Schmidt, Scripps, Stanley, Constan, Lemmons, Polidori and Cushingberry offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 118.

A resolution to memorialize Congress to adopt legislation expressing the sense that national health care reform should ensure that the health care needs of women and of all individuals in the United States are met.

Whereas, Women without health insurance bear significant threats to their health and the health of their children. Uninsured women with breast cancer are more likely to die from the disease than insured women with breast cancer. Uninsured women do not receive adequate cancer screening exams, putting them at greater risk of a diagnosis for late-stage cervical cancer. Thirteen percent of all pregnant women are uninsured, making them less likely to seek prenatal care and more likely to experience an adverse health outcome after giving birth. The lack of, or inadequate receipt of, prenatal care is associated with pregnancy-related mortality 2 to 3 times higher, and infant mortality 6 times higher, than that of women receiving early prenatal care, and also is associated with an increased risk of low birth weight and preterm birth; and

Whereas, Women rely on women's health care providers throughout their lives, for comprehensive primary and preventive care, surgical care, and treatment and management of both acute and long-term health problems. A "medical home" should ensure each woman direct access to women's health care providers and care coordination throughout her lifetime. Heart disease is the leading cause of death for both women and men, but women are less likely than men to receive lifestyle counseling, diagnostic and therapeutic procedures, and cardiac rehabilitation and are more likely to die or have a second heart attack, demonstrating inequalities between women and men in access to health care; and

Whereas, High-costs of health care hit women particularly hard. Women pay sixty-eight percent more than men for out-of-pocket medical costs, due in large part to reproductive health care needs. In 2004, one in six women with individual health care coverage postponed, or went without, needed health care because they could not afford it. High-deductible health insurance plans are marketed as inexpensive options to young women, yet such plans often fail to cover pregnancy-related care, the most expensive health care event most young families face and the leading cause of hospital stays for young women; and

Whereas, Affordable health care is needed by women throughout life's transitions, including starting a family, changing jobs, working part-time or full-time, divorce, caring for an elderly or sick family member, having a major disease, and retirement. Women are less likely than men to receive health insurance through their employers and more likely than men to be insured as a dependent, making them more vulnerable than men to insurance loss in the event of divorce or death of a spouse. The lack of affordable health care coverage creates barriers for women who want to change jobs or create their own small businesses; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we memorialize Congress to adopt legislation expressing the sense that national health care reform should ensure that the health care needs of women and of all individuals in the United States are met; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Reps. Slavens, Warren, Liss, Smith, Valentine, Byrnes, Miller, Donigan, Roberts, Lipton, Hammel, Barnett, Kennedy, Lisa Brown, Bauer, Robert Jones, Geiss, Gonzales, Haugh, Coulouris, Meadows, Agema, Leland, Scripps, Stanley, Terry Brown, Constan, Lemmons, Neumann, Polidori and Cushingberry offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 119.

A resolution to express the sense of this legislative body that the state of Michigan should intensify its efforts to reduce the high rates of teen pregnancies.

Whereas, More than 700,000 teenagers become pregnant each year in the United States; and

Whereas, The pregnancy rate for Michigan females aged 15-19 years old in 2006 was 54 per 1,000, and the birth rate for Michigan females aged 15-19 years old in 2006 was 33.8 per 1,000, resulting in 12,322 babies. This birth rate marked a 4 percent increase from 2005; and

Whereas, Despite progress over the last decade, 3 in 10 teenagers in the United States becomes pregnant, the highest teen pregnancy rate among comparable countries. After 14 straight years of decline, the national teen birth rate rose by 5 percent between 2005 and 2007; and

Whereas, Latina and African American teen girls are more likely than not to become pregnant before the age of 20, and Native American teens have a birth rate more than double that of non-Hispanic white teens; and

Whereas, Teen pregnancy is closely linked to a number of critical social issues, such as poverty, educational attainment, involvement in the criminal justice and child welfare systems, and more. Teen childbearing is estimated to cost taxpayers in this country $9.1 billion each year, most of which is due to costs associated with negative social and health outcomes for the children of teen parents; and

Whereas, A child is 9 times more likely to grow up in poverty if he or she is born to unmarried teen parents who have not yet completed high school. Less than half of mothers who have a child before they turn 18 ever graduate from high school, and less than two percent of mothers who have children before 18 have a college degree by age 30. Children of teen mothers are more likely to be born prematurely and at low birth weight. Children of teen parents are twice as likely to suffer abuse and neglect than would occur if their mothers had delayed childbearing and

Whereas, Fully 73 percent of adults and a plurality of teens wish that teens were getting more information about both abstinence and contraception; now, therefore be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this body believe that the state of Michigan should intensify its efforts to reduce the high rates of teen pregnancies and births by raising awareness about the importance of this critical issue, promoting parent-child communication, and investing in programs that have been proven to reduce teen pregnancy; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Department of Community Health.

Rep. Warren offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 120.

A resolution to memorialize the Congress of the United States to enact the Prevention First Act to increase access to birth control to prevent unintended pregnancies and reduce the need for abortions.

Whereas, Improving access to preventive health care and supporting healthy families should be a shared national goal. Increased government funding would ameliorate the problems of unintended pregnancies and high rates of sexually-transmitted disease, as well as the current insufficient levels of funds to address these crises; and

Whereas, The Prevention First campaign is a family planning initiative that expands access to preventive health care services and education programs to help reduce unintended pregnancy, prevent the spread of sexually transmitted infections, and support healthy families by improving women's health. Increasing funds to Title X clinics to provide family planning services should be a priority; and

Whereas, Private health plans should be required to cover FDA-approved prescription contraceptives and related medical services. The development and dissemination of information about and access to emergency contraception (EC) to the public should be a priority. Comprehensive, medically accurate sex education programs should be required that teach young people about abstinence, health, and contraceptives; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we memorialize the Congress of the United States to enact the Prevention First Act to prevent unintended pregnancies and reduce the need for abortion; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

House Resolution No. 122.

A resolution to recognize June 28-July 5, 2009, as Fun, Safe Swimming Week in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Michigan is a popular vacation spot with more than 3,000 miles of Great Lakes shoreline, more than 11,000 inland lakes, and abundant streams and waterways; and

Whereas, Swimming is a popular form of summer exercise and recreation among people who want to strengthen their cardiovascular system and get a full-body workout, or just cool off; and

Whereas, Summer is a time for families and friends to enjoy get-togethers and parties around pools and other water; and

Whereas, Every summer there are drownings, near-drownings, and diving accidents. We recommend that every family enroll its children in a safe swimming course; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare June 28-July 5, 2009, as Fun, Safe Swimming Week in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Segal, Warren, Liss, Smith, Valentine, Byrnes, Haase, Donigan, Roberts, Slavens, Lipton, Hammel, Switalski, Barnett, Lisa Brown, Bauer, Robert Jones, Geiss, Gonzales, Haugh, Neumann, Meadows, Coulouris, DeShazor, Kennedy, Lahti, Leland, Pearce, Scripps, Dean, Terry Brown, Constan, McDowell, Polidori and Cushingberry offered the following concurrent resolution:

House Concurrent Resolution No. 23.

A concurrent resolution to urge the Department of Community Health to promote programs to identify and address inequities in the prevention, treatment, and research of diseases threatening the health of women.

Whereas, There is substantial research indicating that women do not receive the same level of health care as men. Women are less often referred for diagnostic tests, are less represented in health studies, and are less often treated for diseases compared to men with the same condition. There is considerable evidence that women receive less aggressive treatment for certain illnesses, including cardiovascular problems, than men with similar symptoms; and

Whereas, Physiological differences between men and women contribute to significant distinctions in how certain diseases are diagnosed and treated and the levels of attention from the medical research community. Women smokers are far more likely to develop lung cancer, far more vulnerable to HIV in contacts with men, and far more likely to live in a long-term facility. Women also face difficulties with insurance beyond those faced by men; and

Whereas, In spite of efforts by women's groups to achieve parity in treatment and research, there are many aspects of health care that need to be examined before true equity is realized; and

Whereas, Government agencies and policies play an important role in promoting public health. Public funding for programs, initiatives to increase public awareness of health problems, and encouragement of research can make an enormous difference in how a specific problem is addressed; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That we urge the Department of Community Health to promote programs to identify and address inequities in the prevention, treatment, and research of diseases threatening the health of women; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Department of Community Health.

The concurrent resolution was referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

HB 4787/ 4788 - Turnaround schools

This legislation aims to impose sanctions on the worst performing public schools, most of which are high schools in high-poverty, urban areas. Unfortunately, many of the reforms in this legislation have been seriously watered down. At the same time, it holds charter schools to a more stringent standard than traditional public schools, making it even harder for charter schools to try to help where traditional public schools have failed.

This legislation also makes changes to union collective bargaining powers that are totally unrelated to the issue of failing school reforms. It reverses a number of cost-saving provisions that benefit unions at the expense of students. It even allows unions leverage over areas they should not control, such as the school start date.

For these reasons, I cannot support this bill at this time.”

Rep. Meekhof, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:
